THE LOCATION

ĀNANDA ASHRAM

Monroe, NY September 17-26, 2027

The Ashram was founded by one of the teachers of Jivamukti founders Sharon Gannon and David Life, Shri Brahmananda Sarasvati.

A prolific author on the science and philosophy of Yoga-Vedanta, he combined the universal message of these teachings with his deep knowledge of both Eastern and Western medicine and psychology.

To return to the Ānanda Ashram is a chance to return to the origins of Jivamukti Yoga.

WHO IS THIS TRAINING FOR?

Aspiring Jivamukti teachers ready to deepen their practice and build a foundation for sharing the method with others.

Longtime Jivamukti practitioners from the original studios, including New Yorkers, wishing to reconnect with the teachings, deepen their personal practice, and expand their understanding of yoga.

Dedicated yoga students and existing teachers seeking an immersive exploration of Jivamukti's philosophy and practice, whether or not they intend to teach.

> Jivamukti Yoga's signature Yoga Teacher Training is a truly transformative experience like none other. Not only did it deepen my own personal practice, it also threw open the gateway to a rich lineage of yogic philosophy and insights... This beautiful Jivamukti community supports you even after teacher training.
